Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup

ly and cheaply made at hom but it beats them all for quick results. Thousands of housewives have found that they can save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using this well-known old recipe for making cough syrup. It is simple and cheap but it has no equal for prompt results. It takes right hold of a cough and gives takes right hold of a cough and gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist, pour it into a pint bottle, and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—

Members of Finance Committee To Confer With Chairman.

Senator McCumber, Republican, of North Dakota, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, said today he expected to confer with Senator Penrose the committee's chairman, at Atlantic City soon. "I have not had any correspondence with Senator Penrose on the subject, nor has any time been arranged yet for my going to Atlantic City to see him," McCumber said, "but I expect to see him soon, so we may discuss various matters relative to finance and taxes which are now before the committee."

Senator Watson, Republican, of Indiana, another member of the committee, said he also expected to see Senator Penrose at Atlantic City soon. The Finance Committee will start hearings Wednesday on the bill passed by the House last session providing for adjusted compensation for American veterans of the world war Until these hearings are concluded neither McCumber nor Watson are visit Penrose.

DAD USES RAZOR STROP ON BOY, 15, WHO ELOPED

Paternal Objections Meant Nothing to Youth.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 14.—When he failed to obtain his father's consent to his marriage, fifteen-year-old Urban Hoey eloped to Elkton, Md., with Miss Marie Westcott, also fif-teen, whom he had known since early childhood, and the two were married. Marie had confided in her mother, who kept the secret, and even went with the two to Elkton.

They returned last night and Urban went to his home. When he heard the news the boy's father called for his razor strop and led the bridegroom to a room upstairs from which soon issued sounds resembling inter-mittent applause. The father says he will try to have the marriage an-
